CASTELLO DI ALBOLA

RADDA IN CHIANTI

The Castello d'Albola Estate is situated in Radda at the heart of the Chianti Classico DOCG appellation, where the legacy of grape cultivation dates back to the time of the Etruscans. The Acciaiuoli family commissioned the estate to plant its lofty vineyard in Chianti Classico in the 15th century as a symbol of their high status. Over the centuries, many noble Tuscan families have owned the property, and the estate has earned various accolades for its wines. In 1979, the Zonin family acquired Castello d'Albola promising to uphold the estate's excellence for future generations. The wines produced in Castello d'Albola have earned the iconic "Gallo Nero" symbol from the Chianti Classico Wine Consortium, which guarantees the highest standards in winemaking.

ANTICA TENUTA PALOMBO

ANTICA TENUTA PALOMBO, led by Dr. Norberto Mastrantoni, operates in Atina, Valle di Comino, blending tradition and innovation. It originated from Cantina Palombo, founded by Giovanni Palombo in 1980.

The picturesque Valle di Comino, with its unique calcareous marl landscape and ideal viticulture conditions, is renowned for Cabernet, Merlot, and Sauvignon Blanc. Giovanni Palombo's efforts in 1995 confirmed the genetic quality of local Merlot and Cabernet, reviving native varieties like Maturano, Lecinaro, and Capolongo.

Today, the modernized winery, managed by winemakers Roberto Mazzer and Pierpaolo Pirone, produces 40,000 bottles annually, aiming to reach 100,000. The estate also features a gourmet restaurant and the contemporary art museum "La Collina Sonora."

ANTICA TENUTA PALOMBO's wines are carefully selected for Banca di Roma, embodying the estate's rich heritage and innovative spirit.
